Vivienne,

My sincerest apologies for not writing sooner. Thank you for your letters - I am receiving them! I get a lot of letters, but I don't have a lot of time to write back, which is very frustrating. I am working a lot, studying, working on the appeal and a lawsuit on fundraising, writing articles, and trying to stay healthy. This doesn't leave me with a lot of time, but I will try harder!

I hope this letter finds you well.

With Warm Regards,

Chelsea Manning

P.S. Thank you for all the work and assistance that you provided during my court-martial. I saw some of this work, and was glad that it helped (and looked ben too!)
